President W. H. Spaulding and family will spend the week at Cornish, N. H.

(By Associated Press)
Washington, Sept. 9.—President Wilson practically has decided to leave Washington Friday to spend several days at the summer white house at Cornish, N. H., returning to Washington next Tuesday. He has found he can keep in close touch with affairs in Washington while at Cornish. At the same time he enjoys complete seclusion and is able to rest.

Mrs. Francis R. Sayre and other members of the president's family are also at Cornish.

Man of Mystery Still On The Job

$25.00 REWARD FOR SHERLOCK HOLMES JR. CAPTURE MAKES MANY TRY FOR HIS SCALP.

If Not Captured by Friday Night He Will Appear on Stage at Bijou Theatre Unmasked.

Well, that was certainly a joyous bunch at the Bijou theatre last evening. It was a dandy good show all right and I am told there will be another good one tonight. I am slated for each night this week and I am going to try hard to be on hand as I want all the fun there is coming my way.

The following postal duly noted: "Ha ha! I've got my eye on you, so look out for me. You'd better double quick and get your ticket or fork over the twenty-five in cash." Oh, well, I'll take your word for it, whoever you are.

I want to say something to you dear old lollybolls husbands. Let me propose one to you. Do you ever cuss in your sleep and want to yank your wife's hair out because the mattress don't feel good? Do you know where the trouble is? It's in two places. First, you haven't the right mattress and second your heart is about the size of a pin. Go down to G. F. Tolly & Sons and buy an Ostermoor mattress and you won't have so many aches and pains in your cranky old frame. Look after the mattress and stop blaming your wife. I take it for granted that you will also buy one of the best springs made when you get the mattress and if you don't ask for the Lucille spring (made in Anderson) then you are not a booster for the best town in the Piedmont.

This thing of always being a migratory bird gets a little tiresome as much as you might suppose otherwise. And then, too, I like Anderson and I hate to leave. I guess the best thing for me to do is to get busy and build me a house on that lot I have picked out at College Heights. The location of this property makes it the one ideal site for a home. Surrounded by the best homes in the city and in a section that will always be known as the exclusive residential section of Anderson. All of the streets in College Heights will be wide and the lots are unusually large. The Frank & DeCamps Realty Co. are the people to see if you want to buy out there.

I don't know who they were, but they held the boards at the stamp window at the postoffice yesterday morning, and of course, being a "mere man," I held my hands and waited for about forty minutes while they addressed some post cards. One was all white, the other was dressed in black. Oh, no, I'm not mad about it, but I just wanted to tell you about it.

Every time I pass a show window that is poorly lighted I get the willies-wogges. That is Scandinavian for jolly-poga, and that is to say, but what's the use? Just a minute. What kind of a place makes a bit with you? A place with a big electric sign out in front and plenty of electricity on the inside. What do you say when you see it? Just what everybody else says. There's a live one and he has things worth looking at.

You know a physician who stands high in his profession always commands the respect and patronage of those people who demand the best as a safeguard to their physical welfare. A banking institution that stands high in its community always commands the respect and patronage of those who demand the best as a safeguard to their financial welfare. Such an institution is the Bank of Anderson, a physician pre-eminent in the world of finance.

A bunch of boys gave a traveling man a good time yesterday afternoon. They followed him all over the town until he was convinced that he was not the Man of Mystery.

You have seen that little sign "Do it now," haven't you? Well, that is what I am going to tell you to do. If you have not ordered your fall suit be sure to let the T. L. Colby Co. take your measure. They have the best line I have seen this fall and they represent one of the largest and best tailoring concerns in the country. If you take my advice this is the place to get your fall outfit. You will not only get the best that money will buy but they are leaders in men's fashions. I am going to try and get this firm to offer an extra prize if I am captured in their store. I will let you know about this tomorrow.

I feel my finish reaching out after me. I am told a prominent lady has dreamed a complete description of me and that my capture is now only a question of a few hours. Well, just to show the lady that my heart is on the right side I am personally going to make her a present of $25 cash—when dreams come true.

Someday I am strong on the drink question, just can't keep from talking about it. You know nothing makes me feel quite so good as a good cold bottle of Coca-Cola. I have never got started on my day's work until I have had a bottle of Mr. Rumer's Coca-Cola. I will pass up a dozen soda fountains to get a bottle of Coca-Cola. I have nothing to say against the soda fountain but I will say that if everybody knew how far above the bottled drink is over the fountain drink they would have no other. The Coca-Cola plant here is one of the most modern in the country.

do, Mr. Sherlock." I simply smiled and beat it down the street.

But good heavens! Almost forgot to tell you. Dugan is going to move today. He will be in his new store before another sun goes down and has requested me to tell his friends that he will have his stock all arranged so that he can take care of his trade at once. You know the place, I suppose. Just a few doors below The Intelligencer office in the Watson-Vandiver building. One man called on him yesterday and said he wanted to buy a big glass and to thank Sherlock for telling him where to buy it. You know this is not only headquarters for paint and wall paper, but glass as well.

Columbus discovered America in 1492. Pretty good old discoverer, but I've beat him a city block. I have discovered that Anderson is one of the best towns in the country and all a man has to do to make good here is to show the people that he is there with the goods. These are wise people and they have to be shown. I'll bet that is one reason that my Key West friend, made good. The Dr. not only knows his profession but gives his patients a square deal. His success has been phenomenal but it shows what a man can do when his heart is in his work.

But speaking of discoveries that is my long suit. I told you yesterday that the Anderson Hardware Co. was headquarters for Chittanooga plows. Now I want to tell you that they are also headquarters for the best automobile tire made. And that tire is the world famous Diamond tire. The Diamond tire will not only cost you less than any other good make, but give you more mileage, pleasure and security. They buy direct from the factory and this gives you the advantage of fresh stock. You can buy the Diamond tire for 12-1-2 per cent less than other makes. In fact, you can buy the Diamond tire at the advanced price in all tires at less than the old list price on other makes. Wise motorists know that quality in accessories is fully as important as quality in tires. You can get a Diamond accessory for every need here.

Have you seen the star pin at Cely's? Tomorrow is the last day that I will let the pin be displayed. If I am not captured by tomorrow night I will appear on the stage of the Bijou theatre and let you all see me unmasked. Somebody must get the $25 and I am going to make it easy money to someone who believes in this proposition and goes out after the coin.

Be sure to read my story tomorrow as I will likely tell you how this contest will end and how to proceed to get a line on the $25 cash money. I hope to see you all at the Bijou tonight.

Yours truly,
SHERLOCK HOLMES, JR.

Dear Sir:

I think it is only right that I tell you of two incidents that have occurred recently by our advertising in your paper. Yesterday a man walked into the office and said that he wanted to look at the Chamberlain farm that we were cutting up West of the city. I showed it to him and sold him one of them, before I got back to the office, I asked him where he saw the advertisement and he said in The Intelligencer.

Recently we had an inquiry from Columbia about a farm and when the man came up we sold him the place. He also said he saw the advertisement in The Intelligencer.

Yours very truly,

MARKET REPORT

New York Cotton

New York, Sept. 9.—The revision committee of the New York Cotton Exchange at its regular September meeting here today fixed the differences between grades as apply to the deliveries of contracts. While no change was made in the differences fixed last February on the low grades, a sharp reduction was made in the high grade premium. Full middling was reduced in premium from 16 to 7 points while the greatest change was the reduction on the grade known as "fair" from 175 to 70. The premium on strict middling was reduced from 32 to 14 points and on good middling from 65 to 28 points.

These differences will remain in force until the next meeting of the committee on November 19.

Cotton Seed Oil

New York, Sept. 9.—Cotton seed oil advanced 9 to 14 points early on buying for account of refiners and soap makers, but later sagged off owing to the easier tendency of crude and lack of bill support. Final prices were three lower for September and 3 to 4 points higher for the balance. Tenders 1,200 barrels. Total sales 7,700 barrels.

The market closed steadier. Spot 575 a 587.

Liverpool Cotton

Liverpool, Sept. 9.—Cotton, spot in moderate demand. Sales 3,100 bales, including 2,500 American on the basis of 6.00d for middling. Imports 7,613 bales.

Dry Goods

New York, Sept. 9.—Cotton goods markets today were quiet and weak. Worst yarns were firm, cotton yarns dull and weak. Underwear prices for fall and winter easier, but no quiet dress goods active.

Chicago Grain

Chicago, Sept. 9.—The board of trade closed today. Election holiday.

Money on Call

New York, Sept. 9.—Mercantile paper 7. Sterling exchange stronger; for cables 499.50 a 500; for demand 498 a 499. Bar silver 54 5-8.

CROP CONDITIONS

Washington, Sept. 9.—In the Southern States warm and dry weather favored the further improvement of the cotton crop and it is now reported in good condition in practically all the sections," says the weekly review of the weather bureau today.

The bolls are opening in nearly all districts and picking is progressing in the Central and Southern portions. Some further local damage by weevil and shedding is reported. Late crops in this district continue promising, but rain is needed in some of the more eastern sections.

Over the Atlantic coast districts from Virginia northward ideal weather prevailed and late crops made good progress, except in Virginia, where continued lack of rain caused all vegetation to remain at a standstill.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

New York, Sept. 9.—Completion of the details connected with the new city loan of 100,000,000 was the noteworthy feature in the financial district. What proportion of the amount will be taken by foreign interests is a matter for conjecture, but indications point to strong demand from that quarter.

Exchange was more active today, moved in a manner that denoted a better inquiry at London.

Because of a holiday the Chicago grain market suspended operations today, but the local quotations were slightly easier, with only a nominal market for corn. Other commodity markets reflected more stability. The crop conditions as a whole appear to have been favored thus far this month judging from the weekly weather report.

Declaration of regular dividends by the New York Central and Western Union Telegraph neutralizing the effect of some recent deferred and reduced disbursements.

A SPECIAL TRAIN

Will Be Operated to Greenville on Account of A. G. Field's Big Show
A. G. Field has incorporated into his minstrel production for this year a picturesque and valuable boost for the Panama-Pacific exposition. A rich kaleidoscopic scene is shown, during which the spectator sees the main pavilion at the exposition and a view of the grounds both by day and by night. All is so attractive as to create desire to make a personal visit.

America holds the world's record for national and international exhibitions and fairs. It starts from the Centennial exposition in 1876 at Philadelphia and then follow the World's Fair at Chicago, the Buffalo Exposition and the St. Louis exposition—all with unparalleled attendance.

At Field's treatment of the Exposition is a hit.

The night scene is one of rare attractiveness. The exotic Pacific coast night is charmingly reflected in the soft glow of the general illumination, which he thousands of miniature electric lights with which the building are adorned, emphasize in brilliant silhouettes, the majestic architecture which dominates all the structures.

This scene is used for the presentation of the international offering entitled "The Dances of Nations" during
